Chair Report, Darcy W.

September, 2007

Dear B2B,

Thanks to St.James for hosting and the events to follow.

1st thing- I will be running a tight ship today for 2 reasons: It's my responsibility to due so, but also because it is Kari's first meeting as secretary, and she will need all of your help in order to make her first day on the job manageable.

So please-

GSRs- Read your reports clearly, slowly, and be sure to emphasize the name of your group, and if you have a donation, the amount.

Please try to keep all of your side conversations to a quiet minimum. If you must discuss something, please make a note to yourself, and conduct the conversation during the break, or after the meeting if possible. If discussion is absolutely necessary, please do it outside the meeting and come back, because we need you. ☺

These are courtesies we should do at every meeting, and I will do my best to maintain order according to respect of each other, and Robert's rules of order. If I come off as a hard ass so be it. Please try to refrain from holding resentment. However, if a resentment does arise, do what the rest of us do, and dump in on your sponsor, not me.

That all for me.

In Loving Service, you trusted hard-ass,

Darcy

In loving service,

Kari A.

3rd motion made by P.J. K., and seconded by Kari E.

Motion: To include SMARB and Hopefest as standing subcommittees in policy.

Intent: To include them as accountable subcommittees within our area. (They both are already accountable; adding them as standing subcommittees makes it "official.")

Open Forum:

1. Angel discussed how well the basement dwellers meeting was how it started and where it is at right now. About four other people asked Angel questions or provided experience, strength and hope. One person thought maybe we should get some information from the region. Angel announced having contact with a man from the WSO. Barrie announced that the mission is to carry the message to the addict who still suffers, doesn't matter where. PR read some information out of the group booklet.

2. Regional delegate (J.J) said "all of you are important to the service of NA." I hope you all continue to be of service and participate." The na.org website has youth NA meeting information and the basic text revision is up for a YAY or NAY vote. Get this revision into the hands of your groups. Suggest getting the literature committee to workshop the new draft. Give the Regional delegate your conscious and your conscious will be reflected in a vote.

3. Co-chair for area was discussed again. The chair forgot about this in new business. Take this back to your groups and discuss the option.
