1. John P. would like to put on a kids raffle on Saturday afternoon with donated items, discussion involving the formation of a kids activities chair
 - a. Tabled till next month
2. Brad: We will need to figure out how much to sell T-Shirts for asked what the prices used to be. Catie: We should charge $25 for Tie-Dye's Melissa: We will need to find out what our actual cost is for the shirts. Let's give two shirts to raffle off at the chili feed.
3. Todd: How are we going to get the stage to Somerset?
 - a. Melissa: I've got a trailer and a van but we might need 3 or 4 vehicles
 - b. Todd: An enclosed trailer would be best...Can we get a truck?
4. Brad: We will need to figure out how many coffee pots we will need and if what we have works.
5. Brad: Rent at our storage place is paid till May, after that we should move to a storage location in Somerset
 - a. Before May we will need to find a location in or near Somerset and come up with a plan to get our stuff from Gaylord
 - b. Discussion followed regarding how big of a spot we have and will need going forward.
6. Todd: I can take care of stage assembly and disassembly
7. Brad: I found our wristbands in the box for the gate
 - a. The campground also uses wristbands...we will need to decide which ones to use
 - b. We don't usually have any wristbands for the event
8. What will we be doing for food?
 - a. How many people does a pig feed?
 - i. Todd: I can find out how many people per pound
 - b. We will be serving:
 - i. Corn on the Cobb
 - ii. PIG
 - iii. Potato Salad
 - iv. Beans
 - v. Buns
 - c. We should look for meat markets in Wisconsin
9. What will we do for servers or volunteers?
 - a. Brad: We will most likely have individuals who can't pay the registration and will volunteer for those things
 - b. Discussion followed regarding the need to print up a list of things to do or a volunteer signup
