

PIG EVENT NOTES & SUGGESTIONS

SUGGESTIONS

- Have filtered water to use in coffee pots
- Create recipe cards for coffee and lemonade
- Supply measuring cups to ensure consistency
- Create a new position "Volunteer Coordinator" to assist with volunteer needs
- Schedule time slots for "Other Merchandise" to be sold
- Make the contract with the DJ more detail specific, i.e. announcement needs, hours of availability
- Look into purchasing a megaphone or an amp with speakers and microphone
- Have a water cooler with bottled water on ice at the gate and serving line
- Three months prior to event start soliciting for raffle items (bring to PIG fundraiser)
- Sell bandanas as PIG merchandise
- Give away PIG pens, pins, or rubber wristbands
- Have wood delivered through-out the weekend to campsites
- Purchase two different color wristbands – one for children, one for adults
- Purchase new "pigtails" for the propane tanks, then swap out older tanks for new ones
- Invite the Phoenix House and other treatment centers
- Have black trash bags up by the serving line for easy clean up
- Give raffle tickets to everyone in attendance at the Sunday speaker for nice prize (t-shirt?)
- Purchase a canvas for signatures of attendees at event
- Build bean bag boards and make bean bags to replace the horseshoe tournament
- Green – Step Working Guide Blue – Basic Text
- Begin the slogan/logo contest at the PIG event
- Have greeters at the gate on Friday evening and Saturday mid-morning to afternoon (volunteers)

NOTES

- Only six tie dye shirts were purchased thru the pre-sale
- Sold out of the 2XL & 3XL shirts first
- Ran out of the following items: beans (6 cans), corns (5 crates), chips (10 bags), and coffee cups (leftovers)
- Purchase a bigger tarp for corn shucking
- Use metal tongs to serve pork
- Roaster bags worked great (when they didn't tear)
- Order more tables & chairs
- Write down tournament winners for follow year's event
- Remind parents to supervise their children – campground had property vandalized by our group (restrooms/vans)
- Walking Tacos were sold out of Party Shack – need to announce that
- Investigate other locations for PIG: Morristown, Cannon Falls, Somerset, Hutchinson (Green Lake)
